A Romance of the Days When the Lord Redeemed the Children of Israel From the Bondage of Egypt

CHAPTER XXXI.

WHOM THE LADY MIRIAM SENT.

OF the children of Israel, Kenekes had no very dear memory. Very fair and beautiful one recollection remained—a recollection of another figure on the couch, and by the flash of white up-turned arms and the blowing of a soubre cloud of hair this time it was a woman. Thereafter Israel moved inland and down the coast some distance, for the sea began to surrender its dead. Of the stir and method of the removal he did not remember, but of the encampment and the reassembling of the tribes he recalled several incidents. He was numb and sleep heavy beyond words, and while leaning in a semi-conscious condition against some household goods he was discovered by the owner, who was none other than the friendly son of Judah, his assistant in his search for Rachel in Pa-Ramesu. The man's honest joy over Kenekes' safety was good to look upon. A few words of explanation concerning his very apparent exhaustion were fruitful of some comfort to the young Egyptian. The Hebrew's wife had a motherly heart, and the weary face of the comely youth touched it. Therefore she brought him bread and wine and made him a place in the shadow of her tent furnishings where he might sleep till what time the family shelter could be raised.

But Kenekes did not rest. He fell asleep only to dream of Rachel and awake asking himself why he had abandoned the search for her, why he had left Egypt without her and why he had not gone to Memphis at once for aid to further his seeking through Israel.

He stepped forth directly in the path of a party of women. He moved aside to give them room and, glancing at the foremost, recognized her immediately as the Lady Miriam. She stopped and looked at him.

"Thou art he who found Jehovah in Egypt?" she asked. He bowed in assent. "Thy faith is entire," she commented. "Also have I cause to remember thee. Thou didst display a courteous spirit in Tape a year ago."

"Thou hast repaid me with the flattery of thy remembrance, Lady Miriam," he replied. "Thy speech publishes thee as noble," she went on calmly. "Thy name?" "Kenekes, the son of Mentu, the murket."

Her lips parted suddenly, and her eyes gleamed. "See yonder tent," she said, indicating a pavilion of new cloth reared not far from the quarters of Moses. "Repair thither and await till I send to thee."

Kenekes turned toward the tent. A Hebrew at the entrance lifted the side without a word and signed him to enter. The interior was not yet fully furnished. A rug of Memphian weave covered the sand, and a taboret was placed in the center.

Presently the serving man entered with a laver of sea water and an Israelite robe fringed and bound at the selvage with blue. With the dispatch and adroitness of one long used to personal service he attended the young Egyptian and dressed him in the stately garments of his own people. When his service was complete he took up the bowl and castoff dress and went forth.

After a time he brought in a couch-like divan, dressed it with fringed linen and strewn it with cushions. Next he suspended a cluster of lamps from the center pole, set a tiny inlaid table close to the couch and on the table put a bottle of wine and a beaker and brought last a heap of fine rugs and coverings, which he laid in one corner. The tent was furnished, and nobly. The man bowed before Kenekes, awaiting the Egyptian's further pleasure, but at a sign from the young man bowed again and retired.

Presently some one entered behind him. He arose and turned. Before him was the most welcome picture his bereaved eyes could have looked upon. His visitor was all in shimmering white and wore no ornament except a collar of golden rings. What need of further adornment when she was mantled and crowned with a glory of gold on hair? Except that the face was marble white and the eyes dark and large with quiet sorrow, it was the same divinely beautiful Rachel.

It may have been that he was beyond the recuperative influence of sudden joy or that the unexpected restoration of his love might have swept away his forces had he been in full strength, but whatever the cause Kenekes sank to his knees and forward into the eager arms flung out to receive him. Her cry of great joy seemed to come to him from afar.

"Kenekes! Oh, my love! Not dead; not dead!" Then it was he learned that she had despaired, grieving beyond any comfort, for she had counted him with the birth of Egypt. And even though thoughts came to him but slowly now he said to himself:

"Praise God, I did not think of it, or I had gone distracted with her trouble."

How rich woman love is in solitude and ministering resource! It made Rachel strong enough to raise him and, having led him back to the divan, gently to lay him down among the cushions. The wine was at her hand, and she filled the beaker and held it while he drank. Then she kissed him and, lifting her face in his breast, wept soft tears. And, though he held her very close and had in his heart a great longing to soothe her, he could not speak.

After a little she spoke. "I had not dreamed that there was such artifice in Miriam. She told me of a nobleman that had served God in Israel and was in need of comfort in his tent. But she bridled her tongue and governed her expression so cunningly that I did not dream the hero was mine—mine!"

Then on a sudden she disengaged herself from his arms and, gaining her feet, cried out with her hands over her blushing face:

"And now I know why she and Hur—oh, I know why they came with me and brought me to the tent!"

"Nay, now; may I not guess also?" Kenekes laughed, though a little puzzled over her evident confusion. "They had a mind to peep and spy upon our lovemaking. Perchance they are without this instant. Come hither and let us not disappoint them."

She dropped her hands and looked at him with dancing cheeks and smiling eyes. There was more in her look than he could fathom, but he did not puzzle longer when she came back to her place and hid her face away from him.

All Replies Are Favorable.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 6.—The Russian government has received a large number of replies to the peace conference invitations, all of which are favorable but contain no suggestions regarding the subjects for discussion. The announcement of the program and the date for the meeting of the conference will be sent out as soon as all the replies are received. The time of the meeting will be fixed without greater delay than necessary to permit all the delegates to reach The Hague.

Will Hold Him This Time.

He will be brought back handcuffed to two detectives.

New York, Oct. 6.—In broad daylight and with hundreds of people on the street, Louis Brown, a negro, made an attempt to rob a Maiden Lane jewelry store of $2,000 worth of gems. His attempt was frustrated by Oscar Windorf, a clerk, who grappled with the would-be thief and who was stabbed by the negro during the fight. Brown was arrested.

A FAMILY AFFAIR

Some of the Profits the McCurdys Have Made in Insurance Business.

AN ASTOUNDING TOTAL

More Than Two Million and a Half Dollars Go to One Family in Mutual Company Commissions.

Mr. Jerome Announces That He Is Now Awake to the "Moral Obliquity" of the Business.

New York, Oct. 6.—That the astounding total of more than $2,600,000 has been paid as commissions by the Mutual Life Insurance company to two members of the family of Richard A. McCurdy, president of the company, and the promise of District Attorney Jerome that the insurance scandals certainly will be submitted later to an extraordinary grand jury, are the latest sensational developments in the insurance situation.

It was brought out by testimony before the legislative insurance committee that Robert H. McCurdy, a son of Richard A. McCurdy, has received as commissions on foreign business $1,163,829, and on domestic business $541,852, and that Louis A. Thebaud, son-in-law of Richard A. McCurdy, has received an aggregate of $920,113 in commissions from the company. It was also brought out that Robert H. McCurdy expected his income this year would be about $110,000.

Previous to this testimony W. F. Thummel, an attorney of the Mutual Life Insurance company, testified that he had paid to the chairman of the Republican congressional campaign committee the sum of $2,500 in cash as a campaign contribution.

Mr. Jerome in announcing in court that the scandals will be submitted to an extraordinary grand jury, said the inquiry by the legislative committee had shown "greater moral obliquity and moral obtuseness on the part of persons important in the business world than did the shocking revelations in regard to the Equitable Life."

Another incident of yesterday's developments was the publication of a letter from Charles E. Hughes, counsel of the legislative committee, to Samuel Untermyer, counsel for James H. Hyde, the former controlling stockholder of the Equitable Life Assurance Society, in which Mr. Hughes said the committee would make no discrimination in favor of Mr. Hyde in his examination before the committee.

The chamber of commerce at its meeting yesterday adopted a resolution declaring that additional legislation is necessary for the proper regulation of life insurance companies.

W. F. Thummel, the attorney who was associated with Judge Andrew Hamilton in looking after legislation for the New York Life, the Equitable Life and the Mutual Life Insurance companies, in the so-called legislative pool that was exposed last week, testified before the committee that he was now employed as an attorney for Mutual at a salary of $7,200 a year. Mr. Thummel said that he personally placed in the hands of the chairman of the Republican congressional campaign committee $2,500 in cash, which had been given the witness for that purpose by Vice President Robert A. Grannis of the Mutual Life Insurance company. Witness said the contribution had been suggested by the danger of a Democratic house, which would result in tariff and other legislation of a character to upset business and affect policy holders. He said other companies had been asked to contribute, but he did not know how many did. Mr. Thummel denied paying any money to any legislator for the purpose of influencing legislation or to any other person for that purpose. He described the legislative pool, and said the expenses were met by the company looking after the territory in which expenses were incurred, and later an adjustment of these expenses was made between the three companies. He had received money from the New York Life in these adjustments, but kept no account of his disbursements.

Mr. Thummel said Mr. McCall was in error in his testimony Wednesday that he had paid money to the witness to further federal supervision of insurance. Witness had talked with Mr. McCall on this subject and Mr. McCall had promised to contribute to it, but no money was paid to Mr. Thummel. He further described the division of territory in the country under the three companies looked after by legislation affecting insurance interests, and said the Mutual Life had paid out in 1904 about $15,000 for legislative work.

It was at this point that Robert H. McCurdy was called. He had a number of documents in his hand as he mounted the platform, and when he had been sworn he testified that he was the general manager of the Mutual Life Insurance company. His powers, he said, were delegated to him by the president and vice presidents of the company. His duties were principally confined to the supervision of the agency system of the company in this country and abroad. Like Mr. Perkins of the New York Life, he appeared to be the one factor that built up the foreign business of his company. His salary was $30,000.

Mr. McCurdy had a typewritten statement of his career, which he asked permission to read. This detailed his various compensations, contracts and commissions. There were a number of reductions in the commissions which he said were made at his own request, owing to the unforeseen success of the foreign business. This foreign business was inaugurated because of the success attained by the New York Life and the Equitable. Mr. McCurdy started this foreign business in 1885 and assumed the office of general manager in 1903 at a salary of $20,000.

The most startling part of Mr. McCurdy's testimony was made just before the recess, when he submitted a statement of his profits, or the revenue from his contracts, on the foreign business of the company. From 1886 to 1902, while he was a member of the firm of C. H. Raymond & Co., the metropolitan agents of the Mutual, his profits were $209,123. Under his contract with the firm he paid one-half, or $104,561, to Mr. Raymond, and from 1903, when he left the firm, down to Aug. 31, 1905, his commissions were $1,059,267, making a total personal revenue from the foreign business from 1886 to 1905 of $1,163,829.

During the period of his connection with the firm of C. H. Raymond & Co., Mr. McCurdy, according to his own testimony, was receiving his share of the profits of the business of the Mutual Life Insurance company written by his firm as the metropolitan agents. This sum Mr. McCurdy was unable to give any estimate upon, and later in the day, when Mr. Raymond was called, it was brought out that these profits to Mr. McCurdy amounted to $541,852 net, or after his share of the expenses of the firm's profits had been deducted. This made a total of $1,705,681 that Mr. McCurdy received in commissions. In 1903, when McCurdy retired from the firm of C. H. Raymond & Co., he was succeeded by Louis A. Thebaud, a son-in-law of President Richard A. McCurdy of the Mutual Life Insurance company. He was practically under the same contract as Robert McCurdy, and from 1893 down to 1904 he received in commissions on first premiums and renewals the sum of $920,113. All these amounts were in addition to salaries paid Mr. McCurdy and Mr. Thebaud.

WILLING TO STAND TRIAL

Packers Consent to Being Heard on Pleas of Not Guilty.

Chicago, Oct. 6.—The packers whose recent attempt to abate the indictment found against them charging conspiracy to monopolize the meat industry of the country ended in failure, will on Monday next enter pleas of not guilty before Judge Humphrey. To all other counts in the indictment against them demurrers were filed this morning. The demurrers are general and charge ambiguity, vagueness and uncertainty against seven of the counts and charge that in two of the remaining counts double charges are contained. The demurrers for the five indicted corporations were filed separately, and the officials of the companies demur as a unit. Men who have been indicted as agents in each case filed separate demurrers.

All of the processes are similar, setting up the same facts. The attorneys for the packers announce that the men indicted are willing to stand trial on their pleas of not guilty of conspiracy to monopolize the meat industry, and of not guilty of acts in restraint of trade and commerce.

New York, Oct. 6.—A reduction of bail for Henry A. Leonard, the young man who stole $359,000 worth of securities from the National City bank last week, from $25,000 to 10,000 has been made by Magistrate Pool. Leonard found difficulty in securing the larger amount.

GOULD WINS OUT

At Special Meeting of Directors of Wabash Railway Ramsey Is Removed.

TOOK SNAP JUDGMENT

Deposed President Says Removal Was Entirely Illegal, Meeting Not Having Been Properly Called.

The Ramsey Interests Will Go Ahead With Plans to Enjoin the Regular Meeting.

New York, Oct. 6.—At a special meeting of the directors of the Wabash Railway company held yesterday afternoon President Joseph Ramsey Jr., was removed from office and Geo. Gould's candidate, Delano, was named as his successor. Mr. Ramsey, after the meeting, said his removal was entirely illegal, for the reason that the meeting had not been properly called. He made a protest before the board, saying that the by-laws required five days' notice for a special meeting of the board, and that the notices for this meeting were mailed only Wednesday night. His protest was overruled, however.

President Delano took charge of his office at once. "Mr. Ramsey and I have always been friends hitherto, in the railroad business," said he, "and I do not want to come into this controversy in any way."

Will Proceed With Injunction.

St. Louis, Oct. 6.—When shown the dispatch from New York regarding the removal of Joseph Ramsey, Jr., from the presidency of the Wabash railway, F. W. Lehmann, attorney representing Ramsey in the application recently filed for a writ of temporary injunction against the holding of a meeting in Toledo Oct. 10, said: "This is certainly news to me. All I have to say this time is that the action in New York will not in any way affect our action here for an injunction. We will proceed as had been decided upon."

Later Mr. Lehmann served notice on the officials of the Wabash railroad that Mr. Ramsey would ask the Ohio courts to appoint an inspector for the annual election which will be held in Toledo. The significance of this action, it is said, is that Mr. Ramsey intends to vote proxies under the privileges offered by the Ohio laws.

AN ILLINOIS SENSATION

Prominent Educator Held on a Forgery Charge.

Peoria, Ill., Oct. 6.—N. C. Dougherty, for many years city superintendent of schools and one of the most prominent educators in the country, is under arrest, following an indictment by the grand jury, charging forgery and embezzlement.

The jury which is now in session has been examining the books of the Peoria school board. Within a comparatively brief space of time a shortage of $75,000 was discovered and the further discovery was made that the peculations have been extending over a long term of years. The shortage, it is said, will reach hundreds of thousands of dollars.

To cause the arrest of Dougherty the grand jury made a partial report charging forgery. He was arrested shortly after in the street by a deputy sheriff. The bail demanded was $2,000 and was furnished.

Dougherty has been city superintendent of schools for twenty-five years. He is wealthy. He is president of the Peoria National bank, is a stockholder in the Dime Savings and Trust company, the Title and Trust company, the Peoria Livery company and other concerns. He is a trustee of the fund of $175,000 held by the National Educational association and is a former president of the association. Dougherty stated that if the investigation showed a shortage he would make it good.

Following his arrest on the charge of forgery, Prof. Dougherty sent in his resignation as president and director of the Peoria National bank. He also sent in his resignation as superintendent of schools. Professor Dougherty's arrest created a sensation. He has been reputed a wealthy man, owning much real estate, including considerable Western land, and is interested in a number of commercial and financial institutions besides the Peoria National bank.

Colon, Oct. 6.—The members of the advisory board of consulting engineers of the Panama canal who arrived here Wednesday from New York have gone by special train to Mindi, Gatunad Bohio, where examinations will be made of the various sites proposed as suitable for dams. The party will embark on steam launches to study the Chagres river and its deviations at the points mentioned, returning down the canal from Gatun to Colon in launches. Saturday will be devoted to Culebra.

M'CLELLAN AGAIN

Tammany Indorses Its Former Selection for Mayor.

New York, Oct. 6.—Mayor George B. McClellan last night was renominated for mayor of New York city for the four years' term beginning Jan. 1 next by the Democratic city convention or Tammany hall organization. Mr. McClellan is now rounding out his first term of two years, the state legislature having recently amended the city charter so as to provide for a four-years' tenure of office for officials of Greater New York.

The Tammany convention was held in Carnegie hall amid much enthusiasm. The fact that the entire ticket had been decided upon beforehand did not seem to diminish the ardor of the delegates of the five boroughs of the greater city. They entered upon the work of ratifying the slate with much earnestness. Mr. McClellan was the only member of the present administration renominated, the ticket named by the convention being as follows:

For mayor, George B. McClellan of Manhattan; for comptroller, Herman A. Metz of Brooklyn; for president of the board of aldermen, Patrick F. McGowan of Manhattan.

Mr. Metz is named to succeed Comptroller E. M. Grout, and Mr. McGowan to succeed President Charles V. Fornes. Mr. Fornes presided at last night's convention.

A resolution was adopted highly commending President Roosevelt for his services in bringing about peace between Russia and Japan.

Leader Charles F. Murphy of Tammany hall received an uproarious welcome when he walked into the convention hall, the band playing "Tammany" and the delegates cheering wildly. Senator Patrick H. McCarren, the Brooklyn leader, also was accorded an ovation. Mayor McClellan was notified of his nomination and appeared in the hall shortly after 11 o'clock. Again there was an enthusiastic demonstration.

Passengers Landed Safely.

Eureka, Cal., Oct. 6.—The steamer St. Paul, bound from San Francisco to Portland, Ore., went ashore at Punta Gorda, a short distance south of the entrance to this harbor during a dense fog. She had seventy-five passengers on board, all of whom were safely landed on the beach. The vessel, which was laden with a cargo of general merchandise, will probably be a total loss.

Freshman Were Too Fresh.

Terre Haute, Ind., Oct. 6.—Because they attempted to break up a banquet being conducted by the sophomores of Rose Polytechnic Institute, five freshmen were locked up by the police. They attacked three colored waiters as they crossed the street with full trays on their way to the banquet hall.

Jolly Jack Tar.

"Jolly" is the word generally associated with the jack tar. He is the picture of health, and the health bubbles over in mirth and merriment. When people are sick, especially when sickness attacks the lungs the doctor often advises a sea voyage. But in the large majority of cases the sea voyage is impossible. Even where there is bronchitis, spitting of blood, emaciation, weakness, conditions which if unchecked or unskillfully treated lead to consumption, "Golden Medical Discovery" in ninety-eight cases out of a hundred works a perfect and permanent cure. It strengthens the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, so that the body in all its parts is not merely fed but nourished. And it is by nourishment that Nature builds up the body to resist or throw off disease.

"I had a terrible cough something over a year ago and could find nothing to stop it, or even to do me a particle of good," writes J. M. Farr Esq. of Cameron, Screven Co., Ga. "I managed to see an advertisement of your 'Golden Medical Discovery' in a paper and bought a bottle of your invaluable 'Golden Medical Discovery.' Before I had taken half a bottle I was entirely well."

Political Gossip.

The republican city ticket is a winner Graessle, Everback, Boake, Weaver, Love, Hodapp, Cordes, Brown, Morton and Bretthauer are all good men and worthy citizens.

Peter Fillion, who is now at work here on the stone foundation of the new city building, has been nominated for mayor by the Bedford democrats. To be elected he must overcome a republican majority of about 300.

Because of a misprint the REPUBLICAN made a wrong statement as to the democratic nominee for councilman in the Fifth ward. Henry Alves is the democratic candidate in that ward.

There will be something doing at the democratic mass convention at Armory Hall tonight. There will be two determined factions there and each one will make a strenuous effort to control. A dark horse for mayor was discussed in several curbstone conferences today.

The republicans of Indianapolis gave Chas. A. Bookwalter their candidate for mayor, a great ovation last night.

Burton F. Swain, who is largely interested in the O'Heur-Swain Lumber Company, of this city, was nominated for mayor by the republicans of Shelbyville Thursday.

Cheated Death

Kidney trouble often ends fatally, but by choosing the right medicine, E. H. Wolfe, of Bear Grove, Iowa, cheated death. He says, "Two years ago I had kidney trouble, which caused me great pain, suffering and anxiety, but I took Electric Bitters, which effected a complete cure. I have also found them of great benefit in general debility and nerve trouble, and keep them constantly on hand, since I find they have no equal." W. F. Peter Drug Co. guarantee them at 50c.

Where to Buy an Auto Grand

There are dozens of different makes of pianos of all grades in the market with the "Auto Player" built inside called the "Auto Grand Piano." While this is true it requires the very best pianos to hold up with the constant use of the "Automatic" player or else in a few years you will have to buy a new piano.

The very best piano on the market with the "Automatic player" inside is the Kanabe, as many of our best musicians in Seymour can attest having them in their homes. Mrs. O. S. Guernsey is agent for the Kanabe Auto Grand piano and if you want the very best on the market see her.

Last Hope Vanished.

When leading physicians said that W. M. Smith, of Pekin, Ia., had incurable consumption, his last hope vanished; but Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds kept him out of his grave. He says: "This great specific completely cured me and saved my life. Since then, I have used it for over ten years, and consider it a marvelous throat and lung cure." Strictly scientific cure for coughs, sore throats or colds; sure preventive of pneumonia. Guaranteed, 60c and $1.00 bottles at W. F. Peter Drug Co. Trial bottle free.

Surprised.

Miss Louise Pellens was pleasantly surprised last evening by a number of her young lady friends at her home on West Second street. The evening was spent at music and games and refreshments were served. Miss Pellens received some beautiful presents from relatives and friends. Those present were Misses Blanche H. Barick, Dora Milburn, Kattie Coughlin, Lenore Stanfield, Ruth Cole, Alma Massmann, Kattie McLaughlin, Sarah Shields, Helen Andrews, Mina Weaver, Edith Robertson and Fay Johnson.

Councilmen.

The primary was conducted on a high plane and therefore passed off smoothly. Every candidate made a clean and creditable canvas. The vote polled was above the average primary election vote in this city which shows that the republicans are thoroughly interested and that they will be active throughout the campaign.

The returns were received at the REPUBLICAN office which was crowded with a jolly and good natured crowd. The Third ward returns came in first, arriving before 9 o'clock. The bulletin board was watched eagerly as the vote from other wards came in. When the Fifth ward reported at

The ticket is a good one. It is one that appeals to the intelligence and good judgment of the people. It is one that all good citizens can support heartily.

Delineator for November.

With its new dress of color throughout the fashion and advertising sections, the November Delineator presents a most attractive appearance. The Autumn fashions have a large place in the number, being illustrated and described in detail and interpreted by such authorities of dress as Helen Berkeley-Loyd and Edouard La Fontaine. The table of contents contains, among its many features of interest, an article, the second of two, by Dr. William H. Maxwell, Superintendent of Schools, New York City, on "Education for Life through Living." There is a great deal of interest and value to housewives in the departments, and for the little folks stories and pastimes.

Sutherland Case.

In the case of the State of Indiana vs. Ulysses G. Sutherland, appealed from the Floyd circuit court, oral arguments will be heard in the Supreme court October 13. The appeal is on the validity of the action of the lower court in quashing the indictment found by the Floyd county grand jury charging the murder of his wife, who was Miss Geneva Schellers, in October 1904.

The Woman's Club.

The woman's clubs have been accused of many things, and now it is discovered that they are the generators of aristocracy in this land of the free. Nevertheless, Miss Elizabeth Howard Westwood points out in the November number of the New Idea Woman's magazine that they are fulfilling a noble function in preserving the memory of the past.

A Daredevil Ride

Often ends in a sad accident. To heal accidental injuries, use Bucklen's Arnica Salve. "A deep wound in my foot from an accident," writes Theodore Schuele, of Columbus, O., "caused me great pain. Physicians were helpless, but Bucklen's Arnica Salve quickly healed it." Soothes and heals burns like magic. 25c at W. F. Peter Drug Co.

JUDGE DODGE

Decides That City Treasurer Collects Taxes Under New Law.

GOSHEN, Ind., October 5.—Judge James S. Dodge, of the Elkhart Circuit Court, today decided the agreed test case brought by County Auditor Switzer against City Controller Bell and City Treasurer Campbell, of Elkhart; City Treasurer Watts, of Goshen and County Treasurer Drake, to determine if the city or the county treasurer should collect city taxes under the new law. The court held that the city treasurer should continue to collect, as in the past. This will remain as the law in this county till the Supreme Court decides otherwise, it being agreed that no appeal should be taken in the case. Inquiry in fifteen Indiana cities shows a wide diversity of practice, both as to past and present. The decision affects cities of the fourth and fifth class.

This decision will interest the officers in this city and county as conditions in Elkhart county are parallel to those in this county. Elkhart, like Seymour is not the county seat.

CONFIDENT OF VICTORY

Indianapolis Republicans Open City Campaign With Enthusiasm.

Indianapolis, Oct. 6.—For the fourth time in the last six years Charles A. Bookwalter has appeared as the headliner in the opening of the Republican municipal campaign. With a record of one victory and two defeats he has boldly challenged his opponents to a renewal of the contest. From a Bookwalter standpoint the opening meeting last night was a huge success. Tomlinson hall was as dense with people as on more notable occasions, when presidential candidates and other speakers of national reputation held forth. To his faithful followers it was a perfect dream and they fairly howled themselves hoarse with joy as Bookwalter hurled broadside after broadside at his opponents. Always an effective and magnetic campaigner, Bookwalter outdid himself last night. He had spent months in preparation of the speech and he had it rehearsed to a fine point. It was not only pronounced an able defense of his own position, but a fine attack on the enemy.

Mayor Holtzman will open his campaign for re-election next Tuesday night at a meeting to be held in the auditorium rink on Virginia avenue. He will doubtless receive a fine ovation, as he has always been a popular campaigner. He will not only outline his own policy more definitely, but will reply to ex-Mayor Bookwalter's opening address last night. The city campaign is now on in dead earnest and is attracting attention in all parts of the state.

George A. H. Shideler of Marion, candidate for the chairmanship of the Republican state committee, was here today conferring with his political advisers. He is doing everything in his power to land the position, but it is generally admitted that he has a hard proposition in trying to defeat Chairman Goodrich, who is a candidate for re-election. Shideler and Goodrich are a reminder of the picture "Before and After Taking." Shideler weighs over 300 pounds and Goodrich is about as slim as a rail. Both men, however, are very good-natured. Shideler is a fine story-teller and Goodrich a good listener. The fact that he has not been talking about his plans has caused many to feel that he might not be a candidate, but those who know the silent one realize that he is always busy. There is great interest in the outcome of the contest.

Fred Sims of Frankfort, candidate for the Republican nomination for secretary of state, was here today on business. He is not paying much attention to politics, as he has no opponent. Sims will be the second man to be nominated for the place without opposition, as Dan Storms, present incumbent, was equally fortunate. Sims is still secretary of the state committee, but will probably retire next winter when the committee is reorganized. He made such an excellent record as secretary and as Ninth district chairman that party leaders generally concede that he ought to be nominated by acclamation.

Bedford, Ind., Oct. 6.—In the damage suit of S. B. Lowe, former president of the Bedford school board, against Colonel A. C. Voris, the Bedford banker, for $10,000 damages for alleged slander by connecting his name with Miss Eva Love, the room-mate of Sarah C. TUMORS CONQUERED

SERIOUS OPERATIONS AVOIDED

Unqualified Success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the Case of Mrs. Fannie D. Fox.

One of the greatest triumphs of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the conquering of woman's dread enemy, Tumor. The growth of a tumor is so slow that frequently its presence is not suspected until it is far advanced.

So-called "wandering pains" may come from its early stages, or the presence of danger may be made manifest by profuse menstruation, accompanied by unusual pain, from the ovaries down the groin and thighs. If you have mysterious pains, if there are indications of inflammation or displacement, don't wait for time to confirm your fears and go through the horrors of a hospital operation; secure Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound right away and begin its use. Mrs. Fannie D. Fox, of Lynn, Mass., will give you her advice free of all charge if you will write her about yourself. Your letter will be seen by women only. Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I take the liberty to congratulate you on the success I have had with your wonderful medicine. Eighteen months ago my monthly periods were so irregular that I was entirely gone. I have been examined by a physician and he says I have no signs of a tumor now. It has also brought my monthly periods around once more, and I am entirely well." Fannie D. Fox, 7 Chestnut Street, Bradford, Pa.

Lippincott's.

Lippincott's is happy to be able to present fiction by the Hon. John Hay. "The Blood Seedling" is a good story well written, and rests not only upon the late author's distinguished name but upon the sympathetic treatment of a strong plot.

In addition to the two longer stories there are eight shorter ones of clever variety.

The complete novelette in the October number is entitled "A Manilla Madness."

You can put your food in a bowl, pour a little Kodol Dyspepsia Cure on it and it will digest it the same as it will in your stomach. It can't help but cure indigestion and dyspepsia. TO WEAK WOMEN.

Of Seymour and Vicinity, We Make The Following Proposition.

"There are hundreds of women in this vicinity who are dragging themselves through life in pain and misery, without vitality, strength or health," said Mr. Peter of the W. F. Peter Drug Co. "They get no happiness out of life and are just in a condition to be attacked by almost any disease. They need a vitality-making and strength creating tonic.

"Now at our expense we want to ask every such woman in Seymour to try our cod liver oil preparation, Vinol, which contains in a highly concentrated form all of the medicinal elements of cod liver oil, but no oil or grease. It is delicious to take, creates a healthy appetite, makes pure, rich red blood and gives strength and vigor to every organ of the body better than any medicine we have ever sold in our store, and when a woman is in poor condition it makes life worth living. When we say 'at our expense,' we mean that if the medicine you buy from us and pay for does not benefit you, we will refund every cent paid us for it."

Miss Mary A. Woodward says: "I think Vinol is the best remedy in the world for a weak, tired, worn-out system. I was just in that condition when I commenced to take Vinol. It gave me new life and energy. I feel well, strong and better than I have for years."

"We can only ask Seymour women to try Vinol on our guarantee." W. F. Peter Drug Co.

Financiers Active.

Almost simultaneously with the Irwin statement that the road extension would positively be made comes activity among financiers who are interested in the proposed road between Seymour and Louisville.

Messrs. Lewis and Curry, two well known Louisville promoters and financiers passed through Columbus this morning going as far north as Indianapolis, where they boarded an interurban and came to this city to take notes of the business and conditions of the I. C. & S. These gentlemen will go from here to Chicago, to confer with a capitalist there with reference to the Seymour Louisville line.

These men are probably working simultaneously with the movements of the Irwins. The Irwins were not interviewed as to whether such is true, for they would not answer such a question.—Columbus Herald.

Drs. Ritter and Osterman were selected to read papers at a district medical meeting at North Vernon, Oct. 26, and Dr. Hill was appointed to respond to a toast at a banquet at that time. The society then adjourned. G. H. KAMMAN, Sec.

RHEUMATISM

AN INSIDIOUS DISEASE
THAT BREAKS DOWN
THE STRONGEST

Rheumatism does not come on in a day; the causes that produce it work silently in the system for years. This insidious disease becomes entrenched in the blood, and some exposure to cold or damp weather, or slight indiscretion brings on an attack. Poor digestion, stomach troubles, weak kidneys, torpid liver, and a general sluggish condition of the system are responsible for Rheumatism. Food souring in the stomach poisons the blood, the failure of the kidneys and liver to act properly leaves waste matter and impurities in the system, which, coming in contact with the natural acids of the body, form uric acid. This is absorbed by the blood, and as it penetrates to the muscles, nerves and bones produces the terrible pains and aches and other disagreeable symptoms of Rheumatism. Life is made a torture by its excruciating pains, nerves are shattered, the health undermined, and if the disease is not checked it breaks down the strongest constitution. It will not do to depend on plasters, liniments, etc.; such treatment is helpful in easing the pain and reducing the inflammation, but does not reach the blood where the real trouble is located. S. S. S. cures Rheumatism by purifying and invigorating the thin, acid blood, driving out all impurities and poisons and sending a stream of strong, rich blood to wash out all irritating particles that are causing the pain and inflammation. S. S. S. stimulates the sluggish organs to better action, tones up the stomach and digestion, restores nervous energy and builds up the entire health. S. S. S. cures Rheumatism, whether acute or chronic, and the cure is thorough and lasting. Book on Rheumatism and any medical advice desired without charge.

Millionaire's Poor Stomach.

The worn-out stomach of the over-fed millionaire is often paraded in the public prints as a horrible example of the evils attendant on the possession of great wealth. But millionaires are not the only ones who are afflicted with bad stomachs. The proportion is far greater among the toilers. Dyspepsia and indigestion are rampant among these people, and they suffer far worse tortures than the millionaire unless they avail themselves of a standard medicine like Green's August Flower, which has been a favorite household remedy for all stomach troubles for over thirty-five years. August Flower rouses the torpid liver thus creating appetite and insuring perfect digestion. It tones and vitalizes the entire system and makes life worth living, no matter what your station. Do You Want Strength?

If you want to increase your strength you must add to and not take from the physical. In other words, the food that you eat must be digested, assimilated and appropriated by the nerves, blood and tissues before being expelled from the intestines. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure adds to the physical. It gives strength to and builds up strength in the human system. It is pleasant to the taste and palatable, and the only combination of digestants that will digest the food and enable the system to appropriate all of its health and strength-giving qualities. Sold by A. J. Pellens, and W. F. Peter Drug Co.

You Get Up

In the morning tired, languid, and frequently with a headache that is almost unbearable. You have been nervous, restless and sleepless night after night, and gloomy and irritable during the day. This nervous exhaustion affects the heart, lungs and other organs that depend upon the nerves for motive power. Then the stomach fails to digest the food; the heart action is weak, and circulation poor, and the kidneys and liver inactive.

What you need is not a stomach, head, kidney or liver medicine, but Dr. Miles' Nerve to soothe and feed the nerves and build nerve tissue. "My wife was subject to severe mental strain, which resulted in nervous prostration. The first symptoms were uncontrollable crying and melancholy spells, which increased to such an extent that for over a year she would have a spell every day of from four to six hours duration. She required the constant attention of her physician and attendants. She suffered great pain and anguish. The best physicians attending her could give no relief, and she finally became almost of unsound mind. As a last resort I began giving her Dr. Miles' Nerve, and tonic, and noticed that her spells next day were not so severe and they gradually disappeared altogether. She has had no recurrence of the spells, and is gaining in health and strength. "P. OVERHOLSER, Sterling, Ill. Dr. Miles' Nerve is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit you. If it fails, he will refund your money. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

J.

HERE'S WHAT'S WANTED.

A Citizen Of Seymour Supplies The Information.

Over half the complaints of mankind originate with the kidneys.

A slight touch of backache at first. Twinges and shooting pains in the loins follow.

They must be checked, they lead to graver complications.

The sufferer seeks relief.

Plasters are tried, and liniments for the back.

So called kidney cures which do not cure.

The long-looked-for result seems unattainable.

If you suffer, do you want relief?

Follow the plan adopted by this Seymour citizen.

Harrison Dowell of 120 Jeffersonville Ave., gate keeper for P. R. R. says: "I did not use many Doan's Kidney Pills myself but they proved very efficacious. My wife and I procured them at C. W. Milhous' drug store and in addition to our experience which warrants us in recommending them I know of acquaintances who have used them with the best results. We always keep them in the house for they proved a reliable remedy for the back, bladder, or kidneys."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

FINEST IN LAND

New Federal Building at Indianapolis Richly Appointed.

IN THE FEDERAL COURT

The Furnishings Are of the Finest,
the United States Judges Being Housed Palatially.

Finishing Touches Now Being Put on and the Judges Are Anxious to Move.

Indianapolis, Oct. 6.—Judge A. B. Anderson of the federal court says that he hopes to be able to hold the first session of his tribunal in the new postoffice building. He is the only federal officer left at the old postoffice building, and he is very anxious to move. The new federal court-room will be one of the finest in the country. There will be one for Judge Anderson and one for Judge F. E. Baker of the court of appeals. Both will have a smaller chamber in which oral arguments will be heard. In each suite there will be a private office, and between them a fine and expansive library. The federal judges' rooms will be wainscoted and furnished with mahogany. The walls are beautifully frescoed. Judge Anderson says that the new federal building here is finer than any in the country aside from the public library building built by the government at Washington a few years ago. The finishing touches are being given here, but it is likely that all the work will not be completed before the first of the year. The post-office has the first floor, the federal court officials the second and the revenue officers and pension department the third.

RULING UNDER NEW LAW

City Treasurer Will Continue to Collect Taxes.

Goshen, Ind., Oct. 6.—Judge James S. Dodge of the Elkhart circuit court has decided the agreed test case brought by County Auditor Swetzer against City Controller Bell and City Treasurer Campbell of Elkhart; City Treasurer Watts of Goshen and County Treasurer Drake, to determine if the city or the county treasurer should collect city taxes under the new law. The court held that the city treasurer should continue to collect as in the past. This will remain as the law in this county until the supreme court decides otherwise, it being agreed that no appeal should be taken in the case. Inquiry in fifteen Indiana cities shows a wide diversity of practice, both as to past and present. The decision affects cities of the fourth and fifth classes.

Conspiracy Charge Didn't Hold.

Goshen, Ind., Oct. 6.—J. M. Treesh of Syracuse, Ind., the lawyer charged with extorting money from Morgan Snyder, a rich Syracuse man, on the representation that Mrs. Kate Griffith, an Elkhart widow, had instructed him to bring breach of promise proceedings, was acquitted here. Mrs. Griffith's daughter admitted her mother had instructed her to employ Treesh to bring the action. Snyder became frightened and settled, though Mrs. Griffith told him she never dreamed of suing him.

Will Be Disfigured for Life.

Kokomo, Ind., Oct. 6.—Warrants have been issued for the arrest of George Powell and Charles G. Shaw, the rival real estate men who fought a street duel with knives here this week, but cannot be served until the men are out of bed and in condition to appear in court. Both men will be frightfully disfigured for life.

Fatally Cut Employer.

Evansville, Ind., Oct. 6.—As the result of a quarrel in a saloon, G. W. Schnarr lies in a hospital hovering between life and death. The difficulty was with Walter Price, a former employee of Schnarr. When Schnarr accused Price of having stolen some money from him, the latter slashed Schnarr's throat with a razor.

Teapot Explodes.

Boonville, Ind., Oct. 6.—While cooking tea the pot exploded and John Casaway, aged thirty-five, a farmer, was perhaps fatally scalded.

SEEING AMERICA.

Wonderful Scenic Trip Across Rocky Mountains to Oregon Exposition.

In certain respects the excursions to the Lewis and Clark Centennial Exposition, Portland, Oregon, via Pennsylvania Lines, beginning May 23rd and continuing through the summer, offer advantages never before presented to Exposition visitors. The trip to the Oregon Exposition, in addition to the attractiveness of the extensive exhibits, includes the journey through the scenic wonderland of the Rocky Mountains and the Cascade Range, and what American has not looked forward from the days of the geography class in school to the time when those great sights should be seen in reality? The time was never so favorable as now. The trip may be made less expensive than ever. For only a light difference in fare tourists may extend their trip to San Francisco and Los Angeles. The return trip may be made over a different route, enabling travelers to view much more of the west. For full particulars, fares, dates of special excursions to Portland on account of conventions, through time and passenger service apply to ticket agent of Pennsylvania Lines.
